Late Fees

Parklands School

Learning for Life

Parklands School reserves the right to charge a late fee of $100 on overdue accounts unless previous arrangements have been made with the Business Manager.

Business Regulations

Extended Absences

Students are required to be enrolled in and attending school. Full fees are payable during any absence to hold the student's place at the School.

Student Withdrawal

Before withdrawing, we recommend speaking to the Principal or relevant staff member about these matters.

Four school weeks' notice in writing must be given to the Principal before withdrawal. Failure to provide such notice will incur a fee of $250.

Non-Payment

Parklands School reserves the right to refuse a student's commencement of a new term if their account has not been paid in full.

Bursary Payment

The Bursary Program provides short-term financial assistance to parents of current students who are experiencing financial hardship so find it difficult to pay full fees. Assistance varies according to the family's circumstances and, to ensure equity, may involve the confidential disclosure of family means and assets. Bursary assistance is reviewed annually.

Please contact the Business Manager or Principal to discuss further.

Insurance

The School holds personal accident insurance for students which provides cover for personal injury to students, subject to conditions.

Parents are advised to review their household policies for further protections, including loss and damage.

The School does not cover ambulance fees. In the event of an ambulance being called, parents will be required to cover all charges, usually directly with St John Ambulance WA.

Damage of School Property

Students are taught to be respectful of school property. Any intentional loss or damage will be charged to the parent account.

Change of Circumstance

Parklands School

Learning for Life

Please notify the office promptly of any changes in details or circumstances. This includes, but is not limited to, changes to address (residential and email), phone number, health, medication, and Court orders.

GST

GST is included, where applicable, in all listed fees.
